

CEMETERY RECORDS
OF SOUTHERN
GIBSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Submitted by Jere R. Cox and Emily B. Walker

In Memory of the late
Sis Koelz and O. C. Walker

Acknowledgements

As with all collections of this kind, these pages are the work of many people. They not only answered our questions and gave us directions but encouraged us along the way. Thanks to: Laverne Partee, Chester Baskerville, Johnny and Eugene Woolfork, Ida Lee Webb, Mrs. Essau Lipscomb, Mrs. Raymond Ridley, John Moore, Dennis Page, Billie Kinton, Walter Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hays, Carl Sanders, Mrs. Charles L. Cantrell, Paul Jackson, Mozella Doaks, Wilmos Doyle, Willie Ward, James Watt, Reene Hamilton, Mitchell Wright, Walleen Scott, Gilliam Johnson, Myra Barnett, Jordan Johnson, Edwin Todd, Tom Claybrooks, George Willis, Mr. Radford, Vernita Epperson, Willard Casey, Dot Davis, Dorothy Mullins, Gladys Keaton, Nettie Mae Hensley, Barry Dunagan, Ann Tuggle, Keith Black, Ralph Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Davis, Mrs. P. E. Thomas, Marlene Burress, Mamie Young, Albert Taylor, Judy Dunagan, Chris and Joe Dabbs.

Then there were those who took us to the different cemeteries and helped us read the old stones: Joe Mack Luckey, George Irvin Cooper, Tom Clapp, Sam Doaks, Terry Benson, Wayne Bates, Robert Sammons, Hulon White, Ruth Morris, Bobby Willis, Robert Hughes, Larry Fuller, J. W. Johnson, Sylvia Jetton, Joyce Chester, Joe Dabbs, Caleb Witt, Patricia and Austin Lewis, Brent and Robert Cox.

A special thanks to Jere Cox, "Mr. Gibson County."

Explanation of Abbreviations and Symbols

____ or ? = blank or illegible

y. or yrs. = years

m. or mos. = months

d. or das. = days

B. & D. = Born & Died

Dau. = Daughter

Hus. = Husband

Inf. = Infant

An (+) preceding a name = funeral home marker

An (*) preceding a name = military marker. In many instances there is a gravestone for a military person, often with their spouse, as well as a military marker. In these cases the information has been combined. Most abbreviations used on the military markers are self explanatory. The initials following the war designation = decorations or medals.

PH = Purple Heart

BS (M) = Bronze Star (Medal)

SS = Silver Star

OLC = Oak Leaf Cluster

The single date at the lower right hand corner of the page following each cemetery reading = Date the cataloguing of that cemetery was completed. The names of the person or persons who did the reading are also included.

There cemetery records have been enumerated as the stones were located, row by row, in each cemetery. It is believed this will be helpful to the genealogist since family groups are often buried in the same general area, and, also, allied families may be buried in adjacent lots or close by.

Only those epitaphs which contain necessary genealogical information have been used.

The cemeteries in this record are located only in the southern part of Gibson County. Highway #104 was used as the line dividing the county - north and south. Maps of the southern part of the county with all cemeteries marked with identifying numbers are included.

Footnotes

We indebted to those who had located and catalogued cemeteries in Gibson County, Tennessee, before we began this work. And for those who had done family research and shared their knowledge with us.

- <sup>1</sup> William B. Elam - Medina, Tennessee
- <sup>2</sup> Jere Cox - Milan, Tennessee
- <sup>3</sup> Gibson County Past and Present by Frederick M. Culp and Mrs Robert E. Ross
- <sup>4</sup> Mrs. John Ross, Mrs. Romie Morrisett and John Lessenberry, accompanied by Mr. Todd, Milan Arsenal Guard, catalogued Friendship Cemetery on April 22, 1972. Several stones had deteriorated or were gone completely when we recorded this cemetery twenty years later. Only information from the stones we were not able to find was used from Mrs. Long's notes.
- <sup>5</sup> Fred Culp
- <sup>6</sup> Mr. and Mrs. C. C. James - Humboldt, Tennessee
- <sup>7</sup> Family Findings - Vol. III, No. 2, p 73
- <sup>8</sup> Patricia and Austin Lewis - Humboldt, Tennessee
- <sup>9</sup> Charles D. Fonville - Humboldt, Tennessee
- <sup>10</sup> Trenton Herald Democrat - Vol. 28 No. 29 Sept. 5, 1912
- <sup>11</sup> Mrs. Charles (Hermoine D.) Embry of the Genealogical Department of the Tennessee State Library in Nashville compiled extensive notes on cemeteries located, but not copied. Mrs. Embry's material was used only when we were unable to locate early deeds giving information on original ownership of land.
- <sup>12</sup> Willie Lee Wright

The help of other people is acknowledged within the cemetery readings themselves.

Not many of us are mathematicians, so we have a difficult time figuring out the date of birth when given only the death date and the age given in years, months and days. There is a way, however, to determine this necessary piece of genealogical information.

There is a formula known as the "8870 Formula" which is explained below:

Let's say you have the death date of an ancestor as 6 May 1889, with the tombstone note that he was 71 years, 7 months, and 9 days old at the time of death.

write the date as 18890506 (1889 May 6)
subtract            - 710709 (71 yrs. 7 mos. 9 days)

the result            18179797
then subtract       - 8870

resulting in        18170927 (date of birth = 1817 Sep. 27)

As found in the Sept./Oct., 1991 and
Mar./Apr., 1992 issues of Everton's
Genealogical Helper

BOWERS' CHAPEL CEMETERY

In 1854 or 1855 Rev. P. Y. Bowers deeded to the Trustees of Bowers Chapel one acre of land. On Dec. 7, 1885 J. S. Wood and his wife, F. M. Wood, deeded an additional two acres. A portion of these three acres may have been designated for the cemetery.

BURROW CEMETERY

Located just behind and some distance from the Gibson Community Memorial Garden, it is known this area was used for the purpose of a burying ground long before the memorial garden was in existence. B. M. Burrow owned land in this specific area in 1877. And it is believed that this small, private cemetery served him and members of his family. From the research of a descendant (see below), we know that Samuel Richardson was the son of Samuel Richardson, Sr. We also learned when and where he was born as recorded in The Douglas Register (newspaper). Samuel married Elizabeth Pettus Hopkins and they later removed to Gibson County, Tennessee, along with members of the Hopkins family. For more information on these families, contact Michael D. Mathis - 9800 Longford Drive - Raleigh, North Carolina 27615-1538.

COOKE CEMETERY

This is another of the small family cemeteries located in the Milan Arsenal area. While surrounded by a chain link fence and apparently cared for, no stones were found here.

DOUBLE SPRINGS CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CEMETERY

This cemetery is probably located on the same strip of land Issac M. Gunter gave to the Double Springs Cumberland Presbyterian Church and where the first church, a small log building, was erected in 1841.<sup>3</sup> Dates on the earlier stones indicate the cemetery was in use by at least 1850.

ELAM CEMETERY

One of two family cemeteries of this name, both are located in the Milan Arsenal. The cemetery just to the south of this one has no stones and is reputed to be for the Elam family slaves.

ELAM, Stephen A.                            Apr. 19, 1837            Sept. 1, 1861

ELAM, Thomas S.                            Sept. 6, 1794            Sept. 15, 1878
Martha G.                                    June 4, 1798            Oct. 9, 1862

JENKINS, Inf. of D. P. & M. A. E.
Born dead                                    Sept., 1844

JENKINS, Mildred A. E., wife of D. P.
July 25, 1827                                Sept. 17, 1851

A mausoleum built entirely of brick dominates this cemetery. Measuring approximately 18' in width and 12' in depth, it stands some 6' high. A small ornate gate is set into the back wall. A large marble tablet set into the front wall memorializes the following four people:

ELAM, W. A.                                    Mar. 11, 1829            May 13, 1891
"Our father has passed from this world to a happier home in heaven"

ELAM, S. R.                                    Sept. 13, 1856            Sept. 22, 1877
"She is not dead, but sleeping"

ELAM, W. N.                                    Feb. 9, 1854            July 22, 1865
"Safe in the arms of Jesus"

ELAM, J. L.                                    July 17, 1858            July 12, 1865
"Gone to be an angel"

ELDAD MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY

From published records we know that Eldad Church was organized on the 19th day of January 1828 with six members.<sup>3</sup> At least two of the charter members, Hardy Hunt and his wife Nancy, are buried here. It is not known who gave or sold the land for the cemetery.

Section near the road running south of the church building:

FREEMAN CEMETERY

This is another of the cemeteries that has disappeared. Of the Freeman families who owned land in Gibson Co. in 1877, Z. Freemans lived in District 5, near Brazil. All the other Freeman families lived in Trenton, District 7.

FRIENDSHIP CEMETERY

Friendship was possibly a well populated community when burials began in this cemetery, the largest in the southern part of the arsenal area. A recent burial here was reported to be the first in over twenty years.

GIBSON "COUNTY FARM" CEMETERY

MURDOCK, Charles C. 1849 (Oct. 8,) 1900
(Mr. Murdock, a plasterer and brickmason, had come to work in Trenton from Lexington, Tennessee about a year previous to his death. He helped to lay brick and had set the cornerstone for the Gibson County Courthouse which was completed in July, 1901.)

Also known to be buried here:

BOX, Billy

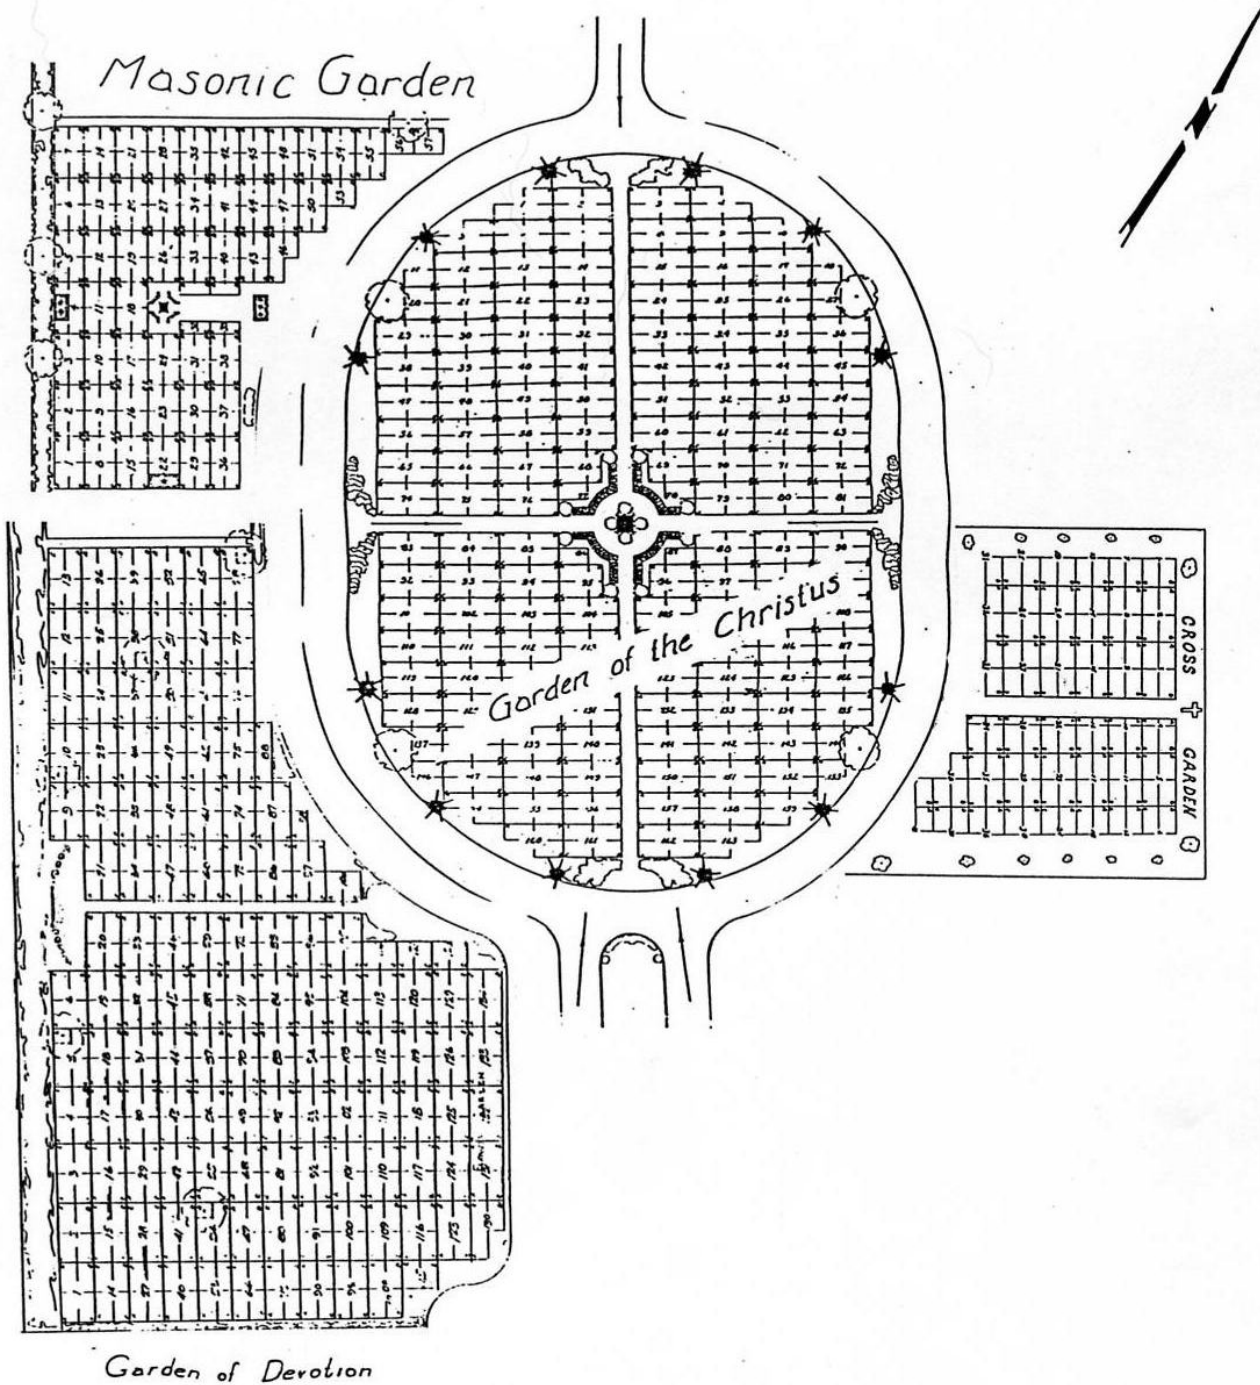

About 78 years old

May 16, 1889

HARRIS CEMETERY

This was another of the many small, family cemeteries that are scattered over Gibson County. Mr. Tom Claybrooks told us that at one time there were from one to three stones here and that, possibly, they were moved to the Walnut Grove Cemetery. At this time there is no other information on the Harris family members that were buried here.

KILLEN NEGRO CEMETERY

While no stones were found in this cemetery, it is known that the early Killen families were prominent in the area. In 1860 Daniel Killen and his wife, Adaline T. were living in the area and in 1870, Adaline, a widow, was still living there. In 1877 J. Killin and T. Killin owned land in District 13 where this cemetery is located. No further data.

OLD MAYFIELD CEMETERY

Originally known as Bluff Burying Ground, it has been reported that this cemetery was established by Green Mayfield who gave the land and helped to build the first church building which was located, at that time, on the site of the present-day "new" cemetery. It is known that he, his wife Melissa, and their children are buried here even though no stones were found for this family.

The three stones below replace older stones with the same dates; there is more data on these newer stones:)

from older members of the Hill family who are now themselves deceased.

MCDEARMON NEGRO CEMETERY

Mr. Jordon Johnson of Trenton told us this cemetery was originally named for the McDearmon family who gave the land for this purpose. Today it is known by some as the Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery.

MEDINA METHODIST CHURCH CEMETERY

We are indebted to Mr. Edwin Todd for the information on this cemetery. He has written an extensive history of the Medina Methodist Church in observance of its 100th anniversary in 1984. E. A. Rowlett, Mr. Todd's ancestor, gave the land on which the church is now located on May 30, 1884 from a portion of his large holdings in the area. And, while there is no record, it is believed that he also gave the land for the cemetery which was already in existence at the time the church was founded.

MOORE CEMETERY

In 1883 Moore's Chapel congregation was organized and the first building constructed on land donated by D. W. Moore.<sup>3</sup> It was obviously the same land on which this small, private cemetery was already located. An old iron and wire fence encloses the graves of Mr. and Mrs. Moore and a grandson.

MOORE NEGRO CEMETERY

William Moore was one of the largest landowners in this area of Gibson County (now within the Milan Arsenal) and claimed ownership of over 40 slaves at the time of his death in 1845. It is possible that descendants of these slaves remained in the area and buried their dead here. No stones were found.

MT. ZION COMMUNITY METHODIST CHURCH CEMETERY

Mount Zion Methodist Church was organized in 1832. The grandparents of Samuel Cole Williams, jurist and historian, were among the prominent citizens of Medina, Humboldt and Old South Gibson, who were buried here. Slaves were buried in the northeast corner of the cemetery. (Historical Marker)

On June 16, 1881 Same'l Shane gave land (number of acres not given) to H. Delusso, J. A. Nowell, and J. Witt, Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Zion on the Lavenia Circuit. Since the church was established almost 50 years earlier, it is believed this land was for use as a cemetery.

OLD GIBSON PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY

This cemetery does not appear to have been in use at the time the church, the oldest in Gibson County, was established in April, 1825. It had, however, been in use for several years when a new church building was erected in 1898.<sup>3</sup>

OLD SHILOH BURYING GROUND

As early as and as recently as 1996 it was noted in area newspapers that work parties were going into Old Shiloh Cemetery to clean with axes, hoes and shovels. In the earlier newspaper account, there was mention of some of the people buried here. It was noted that Prof. G. R. McGee, who would later found Peabody High School in Trenton, taught his initial school at the Shiloh community, which was known for years as the "Athens of this part of the State." The account continued in part: "But the railroads have robbed all such places of their prestige and nothing remains of this place but the old cemetery where mingles with mother earth some of the most precious dust held in memories of the living."

OLD SHILOH BURYING GROUND

"These additional people are known to be buried in Old Shiloh Cemetery but do not have stones:

BARKER, Alf and Louisa?, Parents of Alexander H.
BARRETT, Zeb, Sr.	1891	July 12, 1921
BARRETT, Connie	Feb. 13, 1909	Oct. 19, 1910
BARRETT, Jewel	July 14, 1907	Oct. 12, 1918
BARRETT, 17 children of Mr. & Mrs. Modie, whose names are not known. Some of these died as infants and others lived one to two years." <sup>12</sup>

["Two {other unmarked} graves recently made {1912} are of a young father and mother who died in abject poverty. Their three little children were sent to the orphan home in Nashville, and the day before they were carried away they went to the graves of their parents and placed on them all their toys, all they had.]"<sup>10</sup>

Among those who worked so diligently to clean the badly overgrown old cemetery site in the spring of 1996 were: Jack Coleman, Bobby and Johnnie Mathews, Jean Reeves, Harriett Coleman and Ruth Willis Farris, all descendants of the early pioneer families buried in Old Shiloh. It is suggested that anyone interested in additional history of the Shiloh community or genealogical information, contact Jack Coleman, 9428 Morning Woods Cove, Cordova, TN 38018. Mr. Coleman is also accepting donations toward the upkeep of the cemetery.

Negro Section

Located directly behind the Olive Branch Methodist Church Cemetery, it is not known if this was a separate cemetery and if it was perhaps under another name. We have been told by some that the name was Johnson Cemetery. The name has not been determined through research. While there are no stones remaining in this section, it is known that the following are buried here:

PARR CEMETERY

Mrs. Earnest (Gladys) Keaton who is in her 90's and living with her daughter, Dorothy Mullins, in Dyer is a great granddaughter of John A. Parr. She was not able to give us any additional information on the Parr line except that there were only the two people buried in this small family cemetery and that Winnia was a daughter of John A. Parr.

These following few stones were found in a woods between the two cemeteries belonging to the Baptist Churches. It is believed there are several unmarked graves here. Possibly some of the graves and stones have fallen into a creek near by. Ground cover was very thick and some stones may have been overlooked.

UNDERWOOD CEMETERY

UNDERWOOD, Mathew July 15, 1798 Nov. 15, 1876

Base only, stone gone

(It is believed this base was for the stone of Mrs. Underwood, wife of Mathew. Research indicates that Elizabeth Underwood was born 1798/1800 and died between the summer of 1860 and Dec. 4, 1862.)

UNDERWOOD CEMETERY

There is evidence of other graves in this small cemetery.

VEAZEY CEMETERY

This small, remote cemetery is the most beautiful of the cemeteries in the Milan Arsenal. Ten to twelve very old cedar trees stand in the center of the area. It is apparent that more people were buried here than the few stones that were found.

WARD NEGRO CEMETERY

This private cemetery, bounded directly on the east by Oakland Cemetery, is located on a portion of seven acres of land purchased by Sam Ward and his wife, Eliza, on January 16, 1940. The cemetery was in existence and recognized on plat drawings of April 21, 1942. Land adjoining it was later sold to the City of Trenton and today the small cemetery is bounded on the north by a recent extension of Oakland and on the south by Brown Shoe Company.

WILLIAMS CEMETERY

John Henry Luckey came from Arkansas and settled in the area early in the history of the county. This cemetery was in existence at that time. John Mack Luckey, present owner and grandson of John Henry, told us tradition holds that the four Williams family members, whose stone below carries no dates, all died of diphtheria about the same time at young ages.

WRIGHT'S CHAPEL CEMETERY

This old, neglected cemetery was once a part of one of the most flourishing Methodist Campgrounds in West Tennessee. The area once covered about five acres of a wooded hillside that included a church building, a large tabernacle consisting of a 60 by 120 foot shed, a boarding house, about 25 cabins, and corrals for the horses. People came for miles by horse and buggy for encampments that lasted two weeks. Levi Wright gave the land for the church and cemetery. He was from North Carolina and was the founder of Wake Forest College.<sup>12</sup>

In September of 1992, Pat Burns, a member of Boy Scout Troop #17 of Jackson, Tenn. needed a service project in order to complete his Eagle badge. It was suggested that he might attempt to reclaim Wright's Chapel Cemetery which was described as having "fallen into a state of oblivion, overgrown with trees, brush, briars and vines, and almost completely consumed by a woods." Ten fellow scouts and 3 adults, under Burns' direction, succeeded in clearing the cemetery and re-erecting many of the fallen gravestones. Pat, an eleventh grade student at Northside High School, is the son of Steve and Moana Burns and lives at 7 Fair Acres Cove, Jackson. "The handiwork of Pat Burns and his fellow scouts is a tribute to the early Gibson County citizens whose remains lie here beneath the sod of this almost forgotten place."

Some of the following seven sites listed are simple, single burial places and others are unnamed cemeteries. Some of them have been located, however, one or two were never found.

Cemetery #111

Sam Bledsoe, who would be over 100 years old at this time, told Robert Sammons several years ago that two Negro children were buried here. There were never any stones to mark the graves.

Cemetery #112

We have been told that Bryan Johnson, father of Leroy Johnson and grandfather of "Long John" Etheridge, was buried here in a garden on land owned, at the time, by Ernest Hailey. This was several years ago and there is no other information at this time.

Cemetery #113

The two stones listed below were found shortly after construction of Hwy #45 By-Pass was begun (see approximate location on map). Attempts to learn where these stones were originally located have failed. We are indebted to Terry Benson for copying the data and to Edwin Todd for sharing the information with us. As of August 28, 1997, the stones are located on the private property of David Street of Medina, Tenn.

Cemetery #114

Various names have been offered for this cemetery. It was a small family burying ground and only the one stone listed below was found. Mr. Robert Sammons told us that fifty years ago there were as many as a dozen stones here. It may have been the Willis Cemetery. Emily F. Holder married H. H. Willis, Dec. 23, 1866 in Gibson County. It is believed by some to be the Hicks Cemetery, located on property originally owned by John W. Hicks. A John Willis Hicks married Elizabeth Bledsoe, Feb. 18, 1867 in Gibson County. Still others think this might have been the Bledsoe Cemetery. No attempt has been made to untangle these obviously related lines. We offer this information as a possible help to researchers interested in these families.

Cemetery #115

These stones were originally located near the back of a section of land that was later developed as the Quail Ridge subdivision in Trenton. There was also an old house on the site which has been torn down. The stones were carefully moved and re-erected in a wooded area of Quail Ridge.

Cemetery #116

Years ago a Negro infant or small child was buried here with only a small wooden cross to mark the grave. This single burial site was located on property belonging to Katy Clark and it is thought the child may have been a relative of hers.

Cemetery #117

A Mr. Sanders told Jere Cox about this cemetery where Confederate dead were said to have been buried. No stones found.

(Southeastern Section)

Crockett County, Tennessee was created in 1870 when the Tennessee Legislature revised the State Constitution - Section 4, Article X. It was established and recognized on November 23, 1871. The county was formed from territory that earlier had belonged to four counties . . . Haywood, Madison, Dyer and Gibson. The cemeteries located in what was Gibson County until 1871 have been surveyed and are included with this collection.

We are again indebted to Mrs. C. C. James for data on the following person buried here with no stone. (See Howell above.)

TATUM, Lucinda Porter July 28, 1803 died between 1860-1870

There are five or six unmarked graves of Porter slaves on the east side of this cemetery.
